Featuring general and holiday selections, highlighted by a unique rendition of The Twelve Days of Christmas, the concert is a perennial favorite.

Admission is free and includes an afterglow for students and audience members.

Wrap it up

TCF Bank is offering free gift wrapping from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 9 at all its southeast Michigan branches (except grocery store and campus locations).

TCF will wrap up to three boxed gifts per family and will use up 2Â½ feet of wrapping paper per gift. Non-customers are welcome.

In Rochester Hills, TCF branches are located at 200 E. Auburn Road and 70 W. Tienken.

Empowering events

Rochester Hills author Sandra Agazzi Chimenti holds two programs this month aimed at helping people achieve inner peace and realize other positive goals.

The first class, "The Real Me: Awakening Your True Self," is 1:30-2:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 8 at Crystal Treasures, 92 W. Walton, Pontiac. Cost is $15. Register at (248) 335-1405.

Another presentation is 2:30-4:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 15 at Angel Treasures, 425 Walton in downtown Rochester. Cost is $20. Register at (248) 650-4944.

Band benefit

Rochester Parents of Music Students (RPMS) is holding a "Celebrity Server Night" fund-raiser from 5-8 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 18 at the Big Boy Restaurant on Rochester Road, south of M-59.

During the benefit, RHS band director Timothy Nadeau, along with band students and parents will be on hand to wait on guests.

All cash tips will go to RPMS, along with 10 percent of the food bill, and help raise money for new instruments.
